

Christoforos STRATOS

C. Stratos is a member of YCG/YRCA since 1998. He is a flag officer of YCG since 2012, currently serving as the Port Facilities Officer, he has previously served as Treasurer, editor of AELLO magazine, Andros Race organizer, member of Spetses Classic Yacht Race and Offshore Racing committees. He has a deep attachment to the sea and water sports, and in particular to sailing, as he started sailing and cruising in the Aegean and Ionian Seas from a tender age. He has been a keen offshore sailboat racer since 1987, in Greece and internationally, with numerous regatta wins and podium positions. He is a member of RORC (Royal Offshore Racing Club) and has raced in major offshore racing events such as the ARC 2011 and RORC Transatlantic 2014, an Antarctic crossing, Cowes Week, Spie-Ouest France, Superyacht Cup, Voiles de St. Tropez, Rolex Middle Sea Race and other races. He is specialized in classic and traditional boat restorations.

C. Stratos is a financial and strategy consultant, with a long career as an international investment banker in London, Paris and Madrid, and has been CEO of the Hellenic Financial Stability Fund. He studied Industrial Engineering at Lehigh University of the USA and has a MBA from INSEAD in France.